Guwahati Doordarshan Kendra

2769. SHRIMATI BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) the total area covered by Guwahati Doordarshan Kendra;

(b) whether there is any proposal under the consideration of Government for increasing the transmission capacity of Guwahati Doordarshan Kendra in order to enable the people of Assam to view the local programmes; and

(c) if so, by when the proposal is likely to be implemented?

THE MINISTER OF PARLIAMENTRY AFFAIRS AND THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI H. K. L. BHAGAT): (a) The high power (10KW) transmitter at Guwahati provides service to an area of about 18,000 Sq. Kms.

(b) and (c) No, Sir. The TV programmes originating from Doordarshan Kendra, Guwahati can be distributed throughout the State only when the transmitters operating in the State are linked with it either through a dedicated microwave circuit or via satellite. The VII Plan has already a scheme for dissemination of North-Eastern Regional TV Service throughout the region including Assam by utilisation of satellite facility. In the meantime, the duration of TV service originating from the interim TV Studio set up at Guwahati (under replacement by a permanent TV Studio Complex) is being progressively increased subject to constraint of resources. Besides, TV Studio Centres are also under implementation at Silchar and Dibrugarh where high power (10 KW) TV transmitters are operating. The programmes produced and telecast from these Kendras would be available within the service area of the respective transmitters and these Kendras are envisaged to also contribute programmes for inclusion in the North-Eastern Regional service.
